Be a volunteer!

QuAC has several exciting volunteering opportunities across the state, including outreach and events, administration, fundraising and working bees. Training and regular supervision provided. To find out more and register your interest, go to www.quac.org.au

Join an Action Group!

Want to help QuAC in your interest area? We have a range of Action Groups that meet to plan events and provide input into our work. Zest, Many Genders One Voice, Ageing in Diversity and the History Action Group are all examples. Check our website for details.

Make a donation!

QuAC is partially funded by the Commonwealth Government, but also relies heavily on the financial support of our community to do our work. To find out how you can contribute go to www.quac.org.au

Become a member!

As a community based organisation, we value the input of our members. Anyone who supports the mission of the organisation can become a member of QuAC. Members are entitled to vote at general meetings, stand for election to the Board and have a say in the future of our organisation. To find out more about membership, go to www.quac.org.au

Need a room?

QuAC Centres are open to LGBTI and HIV groups to use for meetings and events, and to collect LGBTI press and other information. Rooms for training and supervision are available for hire to funded organisations.

Who we are

QuAC is a non-profit, community based health promotion charity focused on providing quality services that enhance the health of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex (LGBTI), sistergirl and brotherboy peoples and communities in Queensland. We work towards the reduction of HIV transmission among gay men, men who have sex with men (MSM), and sistergirls.

Formed in 1984, QuAC has over 30 years experience working with our communities to deliver health services and health promotion that is peer led and community based.

Our Vision

That lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex, sistergirl and brotherboy Queenslanders achieve fair and just health outcomes; and an end to HIV transmission in Queensland.

Our Mission

QuAC is a leader in the delivery of peer based, culturally appropriate and inclusive LGBTI health promotion and services as well as organisational and individual capacity development that:

- Promotes the health and wellbeing of
 - lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, intersex, sistergirl and brotherboy communities and peoples across Queensland
- Promotes the sexual health of, and reduces
 - HIV transmission among lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, intersex, sistergirl and brotherboy Queenslanders.

Our Values

| Justice | Courage | Innovation | Celebration |
